

KAYAK BILL OF SALE FORM

This Kayak Bill of Sale Form can be used to transfer ownership of a used kayak from one party (“the Seller”) to another (“the Buyer”). This document is specifically designed for art and should not be used for the sale of other items.

If the art is monetarily valuable, we might recommend having the bill of sale notarized. The notary certification is on a separate page. If the document is not being notarized simply don't print the notary certification page.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR KAYAK BILL OF SALE FORM:

1. In the first blank space, enter the Seller's name.
2. In the second blank space, enter the Buyer's name.
3. On the appropriate lines enter the manufacturer, model, length, color, and brief description of the kayak being sold.
4. Enter the amount for which the kayak is being sold.
5. Enter the date on which the sale will become effective. Normally this is today's date but you might be preparing the bill of sale in advance.
6. Under the Seller's section print the seller's name, address, and phone number. Do not sign the form unless the Buyer is present and ready to complete the form.
7. Under the Buyer's section print the buyer's name, address, and phone number. When the sale is being completed, the Buyer should sign the form.
